Area Golf Courses Struggle with Bills and Membership

The following is an excerpt from Greg Hansen's "Hansen Sunday Notebook" in the Arizona Daily Star - Sunday, September 30, 2012.

"At Arizona National, golfers would be greeted on the 11th tee by mango-scented towels. At the 10th tee, someone would cook hamburgers and hot dogs. Now the water has been turned off at Arizona National, Canoa Hills and San Ignacio, and Forty-Niner, left for dead by IRI, has thankfully been sold. ... The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain, is in the process of being sold to a Texas conglomerate and it won't be part of the Ritz Hotel chain. The sale should not compromise the WGC-Accenture Match Play Championships on Dove Mountain."
