Ventana will be the first tenant within a 100-acre business park

Construction of a 60,000-square-foot logistics and distribution center for Ventana Medical Systems is scheduled to begin by year's end in Marana.

The center will be in Tangerine Commerce Park on Tangerine Road near Interstate 10.

Ventana will be the first tenant within the 100-acre business park and will lease the facility from Cottonwood Properties, whose affiliate company will oversee the construction.

September is Hunger Action Month! We're so excited about all of the activities we have planned, and it's great to see that you are too. There's a lot going on this month, so be sure to:

Head over to our website and download the Hunger Action Month calendar so you're sure not to miss any of the important events we have planned.

Participate in our first ever photo competition "Picture an End to Hunger" designed to raise awareness of hunger during this year's Hunger Action Month.

Walk to end hunger on September 20 at this year's Hunger Walk. Not an early riser? The "Sleep In" option is just for you!

The Town of Marana is seeking a qualified resident for its Planning Commission.

The Marana Planning Commission is a Council-appointed, seven-member advisory body that makes recommendations to the Town Council on matters related to zoning and land development, including the Marana General Plan (Marana's vision for development) and applications for approval of rezoning cases, subdivision plats, development plans, and conditional uses. Applicants must be Marana residents.

The Planning Commission meets at the Marana Municipal Complex at 6:30 p.m. on the last Wednesday of each month. Agendas are available at the Marana Development Services office on the Monday before the meeting.

All applications will remain active for one year from the date of receipt. Applications are available at <http://www.marana.com/forms.aspx?FID=93> and can be submitted online. Call 382-1960 or 382-2655 for more information.
